

Minutes of the Annual Parish Meeting, held on Tuesday 16th May 2006 at the Parish Office.

PRESENT: Cllr Morsley (Chair), Cllr Allum, Cllr Byfield, Cllr Figg, Cllr Hobson, Cllr Tripp, Cllr A Williams, Cllr Stabler, Cllr Perrott, Cllr Pickhaver, Cllr Markley.

1. APOLOGIES: Cllr Pugh, Cllr Wright, Cllr S Williams, Cllr M Williamson.

2. CHAIRMANS REPORT: Cllr Morsley commented on how quickly the year had passed and how much the Parish Council had achieved on behalf of residents. Much of the work goes unseen, but like all good operations, it is what goes on in the background which makes the whole thing work. This is particularly true of planning applications which the parish council continues to vet on behalf of the community. The parish council is unhappy about the number of retrospective applications, especially for houses in multiple occupation, which are already up and running. Cllr Morsley welcomed back the Parish Manager after her illness and thanked her for her work for the parish, also Malcolm Lane who among other duties was producing the newsletter. Finally thanks to the Councillors for their dedication in looking after the interests of the Parish.
